

SOLD LIQUOR AND GOT INTO TROUBLE

Moses Johnson Convicted of Violating Whiskey Law.

ASSESSED A HEAVY FINE

Was Convicted in Mayor's Court, and Assessed a Fine of $500 and Costs or Sixty Days in Jail—Second Offense of Violating Law.

Moses Johnson, more familiarly known as "Blue-to Mose," one of the most widely known characters in this section, is again in trouble, because he insisted on operating a blind tiger. Mose was arrested by Officers Pinkston and Kite on information from James Berry, another negro, who declared he had purchased whiskey from Johnson.

Johnson is a resident of Southwest Gainesville, in a section known as Porter's Quarters, where has been "boozing" for the past few years, since the matrimonial obligations of himself and wife have been strained. It is said by the officers that he has been carrying on the liquor traffic for some time. In fact, he was arrested upon a former occasion under this charge, convicted and sentenced, and served out his term. No sooner than he had been released, it is said, he again engaged in the unlawful practice which brought him to face the laws of justice.

But Mose is not considered a "bad" negro. To the reverse, he is a very inoffensive fellow, and is supposed to make his living by hunting, being an expert marksman. It is nothing uncommon for him to bring in a large load of ducks, squirrels, etc., after a day's hunt. He has a regular line of customers to whom he always goes, and could make a fine living without offending the law if he would only do so.

Mose was arraigned in Mayor Thomas' court, and after hearing the evidence of James Berry, who was also arraigned for drunkenness, and who declared he bought the whiskey from Mose, "Mr. Johnson" was assessed a fine of $500 and costs or sixty days on the streets. He wisely decided that $250 a month and board was better than some of the highest salaried people in the land, exclusive of life insurance officials and attaches, were getting, and decided to work out his fine.

Mose is now "doing time" on the streets of Gainesville at a salary of $63.80 a week, or $10.42 a day.

ORANGE HEIGHTS NEWS.

Trolley Line Projected to Melrose.
Other Matters of Interest.

Orange Heights, March 27.—The Orange Heights M. E. Sabbath school had a very interesting temperance lesson last Sabbath, followed by recitations and songs suitable to the occasion. Mrs. Hearn rendered "Poor House Nan" in a very pathetic manner. Miss Torney Yancy gave a good recitation entitled "The Licensed Saloon," and many other little pieces by smaller children.

Marshall Jolly, who has spent the winter in Gainesville, has returned to his farm near this place, where he expects his family to join him soon and join in the chorus of "Home, Sweet Home."

J. A. King spent Sunday with his family, and his wife accompanied him to Citra Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Curtis were visiting friends at Melrose Sunday.

Miss Minniella Eddy spent a few days with her parents here—also went to Jacksonville to see Sarah Bernhardt, returning to school at Gainesville Monday.

Jim Lumpkin, a student of the Gainesville High School, spent Sunday with his father here.

Farmers are busy getting ready to plant corn and cotton. No serious damage by the frost last week in this vicinity.

Mrs. Williams, who has been in St. Luke's Hospital taking treatment for her eyes, is expected home today much improved.

Oh, yes, Orange Heights is to have a trolley car line from here to Melrose in the near future. Harry Jackson has the contract and expects to be doing business.

Next Sabbath is preaching day. Rev. Sistrunk of Melrose at 3:30 p. m.

Do Not Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.
